The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 14. to Tuesday April 17. 1744.

St. James's, April 17.

THE following Addreſs of the High Sheriffs, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy and Freeholders of the City and County of Londonderry, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriffs, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy and Freeholders of the City and County of Londonderry, at an Aſſizes held in the City of Londonderry, the Twenty ſixth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty four.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WITH Hearts full of Duty and Loyalty for the ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under your moſt auſpicious Reign, we humbly beg Leave to approach your ſacred Majeſty, to declare our utmoſt Abhorrence of the intended Invaſion of your Majeſty's Kingdoms, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to your Crown.

We look upon every Deſign to diſturb the Peace of your Majeſty's Government, as an Attempt upon our Religion and Liberties; but we are filled with the higheſt Indignation to find that any Foreign Power ſhould entertain Hopes of Succeſs, from the Concurrence and Aſſiſtance of any of your Majeſty's Subjects, in an Undertaking ſo deſperate and preſumptuous.

The ſame Principles, and Zeal for Liberty, which inſpired our Anceſtors, and the Proteſtants of this Country, to endure, with the utmoſt Firmneſs and Conſtancy, a long Siege in this City, attended with all the Miſery and Calamities of War and Famine, determine us to follow their Example, and animate us, with the ſame Spirit and Reſolution, to venture our Lives and Fortunes, on every Occaſion, in Defence of your Majeſty's undoubted Right to the Crown of theſe Realms, which they manifeſted, in the greateſt Difficulties and Diſtreſs, againſt arbitrary Power, and the deteſtable Corruptions and Superſtition of Popery, at the late happy and glorious Revolution.

We ardently pray, that the ſame Divine Providence which ſo remarkably protected your Majeſty (the great Patron of the Proteſtant Religion, and the Liberties of Europe) in the Day of Battle, may continue to guard your ſacred Perſon and Royal Family againſt all Attempts of your open and ſecret Enemies, and turn, to their own Confuſion, the pernicious Deſigns of thoſe, whoſe Ambition the Sanctity of Treaties cannot contain, and of thoſe whom the moſt ſolemn Oaths cannot bind to Loyalty, nor accumulated Benefits engage to Gratitude, to the beſt of Princes.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Wicklow, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders, at a General Aſſizes held at Wicklow, the Third Day of April 1744.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Wicklow, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, at this critical Juncture, animated, as much by Gratitude as Duty, with Hearts truly loyal, to aſſure your Majeſty, that we look on the intended inſolent Invaſion with the utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence; and that we are moſt ſenſibly filled with unfeigned Joy, for the Diſappointment appointment of the daring Deſigns of your perfidious Enemies.

All ambitious Deſigns of an arbitrary Power, all Attempts againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, will but the more awaken our Zeal, and confirm our Reſolutions to do every Thing in our Power, to ſupport and defend your Majeſty, and maintain the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe, the ſure Bulwark of our Properties, and the only Foundation of our Religious and Civil Rights and Liberty.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Meath, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Meath, at an Aſſizes held at Trim, the ſecond Day of April 1744.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne, to expreſs, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, our firm and zealous Attachment to a Prince, under whoſe Protection we enjoy thoſe invaluable Bleſſings, our Religious and Civil Liberties, which were reſtored to us by the late happy Revolution.

At this Time, when the Inſolence of France (the Common Diſturber of Europe) threatens an Invaſion of your Majeſty's Dominions, in Support of a popiſh Pretender to your Majeſty's Throne and Government, we think it our Duty to give the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our unanimous and unſhaken Fidelity to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe; and publickly to declare our firm Reſolutions to maintain, with our Lives and Fortunes, our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment under your Majeſty's juſt and mild Government.

We congratulate your Majeſty on the Defeat of the Schemes of France; and make no Doubt, but that the Unanimity of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, ſupported by your wiſe and vigorous Meaſures, will effectually ſecure us from the like Attempts for the future.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Armagh, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secrataries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Armagh, at a General Aſſizes held at Armagh for the ſaid County, the 22d Day of March 1743.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave, amongſt the moſt zealous of our Fellow Subjects, to congratulate your Majeſty on the univerſal Unanimity which, on this Occaſion, appears among your Proteſtant Subjects, to fruſtrate a moſt wicked and treacherous Deſign to introduce into your Britiſh Dominions the Son of a popiſh Pretender to your Realms, carried on and ſupported by a neighbouring Power, who has always looked with an envious Eye on the Happineſs your Proteſtant Subjects enjoy, under your moſt mild and auſpicious Government.

On this Occaſion we beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts full of Zeal and Loyalty, to give your Majeſty the warmeſt and moſt unfeigned Aſſurance of our ſteady and inviolable Attachment to your ſacred Perſon, and to ſhew a chearful Readineſs to ſupport the Proteſtant Succeſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms in your Royal Family, at the Hazard of every Thing that is dear to us, againſt all Attempts of a popiſh Pretender, his Iſſue, and Abettors; and to declare our utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of him and all his Friends, foreign or domeſtick, whether Papiſts or Jacobites, who, under the Pretence of being Proteſtants, are of Conſequence the moſt dangerous Enemies to our preſent happy Conſtitution and Government, which, at this perilous Time, has been guarded and ſecured to us by the Vigilance and Care of his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, to whom, under your moſt ſacred Majeſty, we owe that bleſſed Tranquility which we now enjoy.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Lowth, in the Kingdom of Ireland, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Free-

Freeholders of the County of Lowth, in the Kingdom of Ireland, at a General Aſſizes held for the ſaid County, the 6th of March 1743.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to take this Opportunity of expreſſing to your Majeſty our moſt grateful Acknowledgments for the many invaluable Bleſſings we have enjoyed during the whole Courſe of your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, and our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of every Attempt in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, either by Powers from Abroad, or diſaffected Perſons at Home.

Your Majeſty's many Royal Virtues juſtly ſecure your Empire in the Hearts of all your Subjects that are not equally blind to their own Intereſts and the Intereſts of their Country; and as our Happineſs depends upon the Safety of your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, and that of our Poſterity upon the Increaſe and Preſervation of your Royal Iſſue, our Duty and Gratitude muſt neceſſarily engage us to exert our utmoſt Endeavours, upon every Occaſion, to diſcountenance and oppoſe whatever may have the leaſt Tendency to diſturb your Majeſty's Government: And this, in our ſeveral Stations, we moſt humbly aſſure your Majeſty, we will faithfully perform, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes; and hope, that thoſe Deſigns, which, by the Wiſdom of your Councils, have been ſo ſeaſonably detected, will, by the Bleſſing of the Almighty on your Majeſty's Arms, be ſpeedily diſſipated and ſuppreſſed.

The following Addreſs of the Sheriff, Grand Jury, Clergy and Laity of the County of Wexford, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Sheriff, Grand Jury, Clergy and Laity of the County of Wexford.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Grand Jury, Clergy and Laity of your County of Wexford, in your Kingdom of Ireland, reſenting and deteſting the Deſigns of your Majeſty's Enemies in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, in Diſturbance of the Peace of theſe your Majeſty's Kingdoms, and in Subverſion of our Religious and Civil Rights and Liberties, think it our Duty to take this Opportunity of ſhewing our Indignation at an Attempt ſo preſumptuous and impotent.

We muſt indeed forget the Happineſs we enjoy in our Religion and Liberties under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign: We muſt have loſt all Memory of the Miſeries we lately ſuffered under the arbitrary and tyrannous Will of a popiſh Prince: We muſt be altogether unacquainted with the Principles of that Church, whoſe Mercy is Cruelty, were we ſilent upon this Occaſion.

We therefore intreat your Majeſty to accept of our higheſt Gratitude for the many ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy, and this Declaration of our unſhaken Reſolution to exert, on this ſo critical Occaſion, our utmoſt Endeavours in Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon, and undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms, and to ſecure the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Family: And we implore the great Giver of all Victories, to bleſs your Majeſty's Arms with Succeſs, and to inſpire your Subjects with ſuch Unanimity to ſupport your Majeſty, as may defeat all the Attempts of your Enemies.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Downe, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Downe, at an Aſſizes held at Downpatrick, in and for the ſaid County, on the Tenth Day of March 1743.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, preſume to expreſs to your Majeſty, at this Time, our juſt Abhorrence of the inſolent and raſh Attempts of a faithleſs Power, to diſturb the Peace of your Majeſty's Government, and to alarm your affectionate Subjects with Apprehenſions of the greateſt Calamity that can befall them; which is, the having a popiſh Pretender introduced into theſe Kingdoms, by the Arms of France.

The Deliverance this Nation in particular had from Popery and Slavery, by the glorious King William of immortal Memory, has made too laſting Impreſſions upon us your Majeſty's Subjects, to be eaſily defaced; and as the Bleſſings we have enjoyed, ſince the Acceſſion of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe to the Crown of theſe Realms, were purchaſed by our Fathers with their Blood, we their Deſcendants moſt humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, ſupport and defend the ſame with our Lives and Fortunes, being truly ſenſible, that, under God, our own Happineſs, and the Welfare of our Poſterity, will depend upon the Safety

Safety of your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, and the Eſtabliſhment of your Throne in your Majeſty's Royal Family.

We want Terms to expreſs our Deteſtation of thoſe amongſt us, who have any Way aſſiſted or countenanced theſe Deſigns from Abroad, and we will be moſt vigilant to detect and bring to Juſtice the Enemies to your Majeſty's Government, as they are the greateſt Enemies to the Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms: But ſince their wicked Schemes have been ſo early detected by the Vigilance of your Majeſty's Councils, and your People rendered ſafe, by your Majeſty's Wiſdom, in Great Britain, and his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire's Preſence and Precaution in this Kingdom, we hope and perſuade ourſelves, that the Unanimity and Zeal your Majeſty's faithful Subjects have expreſſed on this Occaſion, will not only diſmay and defeat your Majeſty's Enemies at this Time, but prevent like Attempts for the Future; and ſhew to the World, that no Attachments can be ſo ſtrong, as thoſe of a Free People, to the Prince they eſteem the Father of his Country.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and other the Proteſtant Inhabitants of the County of Leitrim, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and other the Proteſtant Inhabitants of the County of Leitrim, in your Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave, in the humbleſt Manner, to expreſs our Reſentment at the Indignity offered to your Majeſty, by the Invaſion intended from France in Favour of a ſpurious popiſh Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown.

As we are fully ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, and of the neceſſary Dependance of all our Religious and Civil Rights upon the Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe, we ſhall not fail, with the utmoſt Chearfulneſs and Reſolution, to oppoſe ourſelves, upon every Occaſion, and now more eſpecially, to all your Majeſty's Enemies.

And though we have the Misfortune, in this Country, to abound with Papiſts, who, in the moſt ſettled Times, do but awkardly conceal their Attachment to France and the Pretender,

We your Majeſty's faithful Proteſtant Subjects, who are ready and forward, with their Lives and Fortunes, to ſupport your Majeſty and your Government, do, notwithſtanding the Advantage of Numbers, and the boaſting Power of France, reſt aſſured, that we ſhall be able, by the Bleſſing of God upon ſo juſt a Cauſe, and the prudent Conduct of your Majeſty's Servant our moſt Excellent Lord Lieutenant his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, not only to preſerve the Tranquility of this your Majeſty's Kingdom, againſt all inteſtine Enemies, but likewiſe repel, with Shame and Confuſion, any inſolent Attempts that may be made from Abroad.

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Weſtmorland, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Lonſdale, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderneſs, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Clergy, aſſembled in General Quarter Seſſions held at Appleby, and afterwards, by Adjournment, at Kendall, for your County of Weſtmorland, do humbly beg Leave, at this important Juncture, to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Fidelity to your ſacred Perſon and Government, and our invariable Attachment to the Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe.

It is with juſt Reaſon, that we utterly deteſt and abhor the inſolent Invaſion attempted by a French Power, and the perfidious Deſign to place a popiſh Pretender on the Britiſh Throne, ſince the Succeſs of ſuch an horrid Enterprize would have turned our happy Conſtitution into Confuſion, our pure Religion into Superſtition, and our amiable Liberty into Slavery.

But truly ſenſible of the ineſtimable Bleſſings and Benefits we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign; truly ſenſible, that you make the Rights of your Subjects your tender Care, their Religion your ſolicitous Concern, and their Proſperity your ſolid Intereſt, we are ready and reſolved to devote our Lives and Fortunes to the Defence of your Royal Perſon and Family, againſt all Foreign Foes and Domeſtick Factions.

We are happy under your moſt Excellent Majeſty: We know our Happineſs, and influenced by the Importunities of Gratitude as well as the Duties of Allegiance, we can never think ourſelves too zealous to eſtabliſh the Glory of a Sovereign, who takes ſuch vigorous and vigilant Pains to eſtabliſh our Welfare.

That Divine Providence, Sacred Sir, may confirm to your Majeſty that affectionate Loyalty, which has been declared by the Voice of Great

Great Britain, and long preſerve you to reign in the Hearts of a free and happy People; that the Wiſdom of your Councils may be attended with Succeſs, and the Bravery of your Fleets and Armies with Victory, is and ſhall be the conſtant and fervent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's
Moſt Dutiful,
Moſt Devoted and Moſt Obedient
Subjects and Servants.

Signed at Appleby the Second, and at Kendall the Sixth of April 1744.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Carmarthen, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir Nicholas Williams, Bart. their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderneſs, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen, met at the Great Seſſions holden for the County of Carmarthen, on the fourth Day of April 1744.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our juſt Abhorrence of the intended Invaſion of this Kingdom in Favour of a popiſh Pretender.

We are too ſenſible of the many diſtinguiſhing and great Bleſſings of Religious and Civil Liberty, to admit the moſt diſtant Thought of Romiſh Slavery and Superſtition, the baſe Deſigns of reſtleſs Faction, and ſure Effects of deſpotick Power.

The various Happineſs we feel, under your Majeſty's moſt mild and auſpicious Government, cannot but inſpire us with the warmeſt Zeal and moſt active Endeavours to protect your Royal Perſon and Dignity; and to ſuppreſs, with our utmoſt Vigour, the daring Inſults and bold Attempts of all who would offer Violence to your Crown, or Diſturbance to your Reign.

As the French King, deaf to all the Suggeſtions of Equity, and regardleſs of the moſt ſolemn Treaties, has openly declared War againſt your Majeſty, permit us, Dread Sovereign, at this critical Juncture, to aſſure you, with Hearts full of Gratitude, Loyalty and Affection, that nothing is or can be eſteemed by us too dear or valuable to be ſacrificed in Defence of your Rights, and in the Preſervation of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Family.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Cuſtos Rotulorum, and other Juſtices of the Peace, the Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen of the County of Pembroke, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Campbell, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderneſs, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Cuſtos Rotulorum, and other Juſtices of the Peace, the Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen, met at the Aſſizes holden for the County of Pembroke, on Tueſday the Twenty ſeventh Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty four.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg your Majeſty to accept of the moſt unfeigned Aſſurances of our inviolable Fidelity and Attachment to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, and of our hearty Deteſtation and juſt Reſentment of the late inſolent Attempt of the Court of France to invade your Majeſty's Dominions in Favour of an abjured Pretender, declaring, at the ſame Time, our firm and ſincere Reſolution to oppoſe him, and all your Majeſty's Enemies, to the laſt Extremity; not in the leaſt intimidated, by the Menaces of War, from a Nation ſo lately defeated by your Majeſty's victorious Arms.

When we reflect on the uncommon Happineſs of your Majeſty's Subjects, above all others in Europe, in the free Enjoyment of the pureſt Religion, the beſt Laws, and the greateſt Plenty, we think ourſelves, and every Briton, obliged, by the ſtrongeſt Ties of Conſcience, Gratitude and Intereſt, to hazard both our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of that illuſtrious Family, to which, under God, we owe ſuch ineſtimable Bleſſings.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen of the County of Glamorgan, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. Buſſy Manſel, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderneſs, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen, met at the Grand Seſſions held at Cardiff, in and for the County of Glamorgan, on Saturday the twenty fourth Day of March 1743.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, amidſt the Addreſſes of your moſt faithful People, take this our firſt Opportunity of declaring our utmoſt Abhorrence to any Invaſion of your Majeſty's Britiſh Dominions, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, and our Reſentment of the Perfidy of any Power, that ſhall ſupport any ſuch inſolent Attempt, on any Pretence whatſoever; well knowing our Security under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, and the Deſtruction that muſt unavoidably fall upon a free People, under the Influence and Prevalence of Popery: And to expreſs our Indignation, which ought to fire the Breaſt of every true ancient Briton, againſt any deſperate Deſign to ſubvert our Laws, by endeavouring to impoſe upon us Slavery and arbitrary Power: And that your Majeſty's Arms, in Oppoſition to ſuch Meaſures, may be attended with Succeſs; and that the Crown of theſe Realms may be moſt happily enjoyed by your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Family, to the lateſt Poſterity, in the Support of the Proteſtant Religion, and in Preſervation of the beſt form'd Conſtitution in the World, are the moſt ſincere Wiſhes of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the ancient Borough of Thetford, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Henry Beauclerk and Charles Fitzroy, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderneſs, one of the Lords of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the ancient Borough of Thetford, in the Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, ever anxious for Freedom, and zealous for the uninterrupted Happineſs, which, as Subjects of this Realm, we have ſo long experienced under your Majeſty's moſt equitable and auſpicious Government, cannot reflect upon the late unparallel'd Inſolence of the Crown of France, but with the utmoſt Horror and Deteſtation: Nor are we leſs aſtoniſh'd that any, who boaſt the glorious Name of Britons, ſhould be ſo abandoned and ungrateful, as to become the vile Abettors of ſo abominable, flagitious, and deſperate an Undertaking, and that in open Defiance of all publick Faith, as well as the moſt ſolemn Treaties; an Undertaking, which, in lieu of our beloved Liberty, Truth and Property, (acquired at the Expence of ſo much Proteſtant Blood) had nothing to barter with its miſguided Votaries, but Prieſtcraft and arbitrary Power, with all their frightful Train of Want, Ignorance and Slavery. Duly affected therefore with the Weight of theſe Conſiderations, we do moſt humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will be always watchful of your Majeſty's Intereſt and Safety, which are ſo eſſential to and inſeparable from the Well-being of theſe Nations: That we will not only, by a conſtant and uniform Obedience to your Majeſty's Government, ſet forth a good Example to others; but that if, at any Time hereafter, this ambitious Diſturber, this implacable Enemy to the Peace and Quiet of all Europe, ſhould again have the Hardineſs to meditate any farther Attempt on your Majeſty's Dominions, in Favour of a popiſh and abjured Pretender, we will then, at all Times, be ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to oppoſe ſo wicked a Deſign; and we doubt not, by the Aſſiſtance of Divine Providence, together with your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and undaunted Courage, ſupported by the Hearts and Hands of your faithful Subjects, but theſe ineſtimable Bleſſings, which we are now ſo happy as to enjoy, will be delivered down to our lateſt Poſterity, in the regular Succeſſion of your Majeſty's Royal Progeny to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms. In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto put our Common Seal this 26th Day of March 1744.

The following Addreſs of the Conſtable, Baillies, and Town Council of the Borough of Cullen, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir James Grant, Bart. their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderneſs, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Conſtable, Baillies, and Town Council of the Borough of Cullen.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Conſtable, Baillies, and Town Council of your ancient Borough of Cullen, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that although the Smallneſs and Remoteneſs of our Corporation, prevents our preſuming, ſo frequently as others, to approach your Throne by Addreſſes; yet we have conſtantly been moſt zealouſly and affectionately attached to the Intereſts of your Royal Family; and, in the preſent Conjuncture, we cannot forbear to declare to your Majeſty, that we are, with the greateſt Gratitude, ſenſible that we, and all the Subjects of Great Britain, do, under your moſt mild and auſpicious Government, enjoy a Happineſs really ſuperior to what any Nation in Europe can boaſt of.

We

We know, Great Sir, that the Security of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, does, under God, entirely depend on the Stability of your Government; and therefore we are determined, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to the utmoſt of our ſmall Power, to ſupport your Majeſty's juſt and lawful Right to the Crown, againſt all Attempts of the Pretender, and his Deſcendants and Adherents: And we cannot, without the greateſt Deteſtation, think of the audacious Enterprize, meditated by France, of invading and conquering this Kingdom; which, however, we hope, ſhall, by the Bleſſing of Divine Providence, only produce the Effect of uniting the Hearts of all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, in active Zeal for your Service; and of awakening all the Princes and States, intereſted in the Preſervation of the Balance of Power in Europe, into ſuch a Senſe of their Danger, as will enable your Majeſty, at the Head of ſo great a Confederacy, effectually to finiſh the Work you have ſo glorioufly begun, of humbling France; whereby its Neighbours may be delivered from thoſe Terrors, to which they muſt, by its Ambition and Perfidiouſneſs, be always expoſed, while it has ſo much Power to hurt.

Cullen, March 27, 1744. Signed in Preſence, and by Appointment, Findlater and Seafield, Conſtable.

The following Addreſs of the Inhabitants, Burgeſſes of the Borough of Crichlade, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir Thomas Read, Bart. and William Ellis, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants, Burgeſſes of the Borough of Crichlade, in the County of Wilts.

PERMIT us, moſt gracious Sovereign, at this Time of publick Danger, to lay ourſelves at your Majeſty's Feet, and, in Conjunction with the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, declare our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the intended Invaſion, in Favour of a popiſh abjured Pretender; and at the ſame Time, with Hearts full of Duty and Gratitude, to give your Majeſty the warmeſt Aſſurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Perſon and Government.

The free Exerciſe of our Religion, the full Enjoyment of our Laws, the Security of our Perſons and Properties, and, above all, our Liberty, are Bleſſings invaluable; Bleſſings that we (more than any other Nation) enjoy, in the moſt ſenſible Manner, under your mild auſpicious Government. The Conſideration of which animates us with Reſolution, to hazard our All in Defence of your Royal Perſon and Government, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe. And we can never doubt, but that the ſame worthy Virtue of the Engliſh Nation, which ſhone out in its full Luſtre, in that glorious Work of the ever memorable Revolution, (the Foundation of all our preſent Happineſs) in Oppoſition to Popery and arbitrary Power, does ſtill, and will for ever exiſt, to ſupport and defend your Majeſty's Perſon, and your indubitable Right and Title to the Crown of theſe Realms; as on what all our future Happineſs, under God, depends.

That the Invaders ſhould have Encouragement from Perſons of our own Kingdom, raiſes our Aſtoniſhment, and at the ſame Times firmly fixes our Reſolutions, in our elective Proceedings, at all Times to ſhew a great and particular Regard to ſuch Gentlemen only, whoſe known Principles (like thoſe of our preſent worthy Repreſentatives) are ſuch as demonſtrate them Friends to Liberty, and the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment.

May that Providence, which lately ſo eminently preſerved your ſacred Perſon when engaged in the Common Cauſe of Liberty, ſtill continue to render you victorious over the ſame, and all other your Enemies. May the dire Effects of a War, now injurioufly begun by the Common Diſturbers of Europe, with no other View but to proſecute their ambitious, inſolent and wicked Deſigns, fall on their own Heads; and on yours, may your Crown flouriſh, till you ſhall receive your juſt Recompence of Reward, a Crown of Glory above; and your earthly Diadems be peaceably tranſmitted, in a Succeſſion of your Royal Progeny, till Time ſhall ceaſe, and be no more, are the ſincere Wiſhes, and conſtant Prayers, of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Cambridge, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, and one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting, accompanied by the Right Hon. the Lord Montford, Samuel Shepheard, and Soame Jenyns, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, Edward Nightingale, and Thomas Carter, Eſqrs. and other Gentlemen of the ſaid County: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden for the County of Cambridge, upon the ſixth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1744.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Juſtices of the Peace, aſſembled ſembled at the ſaid General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the County of Cambridge, beg Leave to declare our utmoſt Abhorrence of the Deſigns of France, in endeavouring to impoſe upon us an abjur'd Pretender to your Majeſty's Throne, in Violation of your Majeſty's undoubted Rights, and of the Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom, which our Anceſtors and Selves have, at the Expence of ſo much Blood and Treaſure, happily ſupported, and thereby prevented our becoming a Province to that perfidious Nation, which has long envied our Freedom and Independency, the greateſt Obſtacles to their enſlaving the Liberties of Europe; a Deſign, which they have long, by Art and Treachery, been carrying on, and are now, by open Force, attempting.

We are truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy, from the Preſervation of our Civil and Religious Rights, under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Influence; and, with Hearts full of Gratitude, aſſure your Majeſty, that we are determined, to the utmoſt of our Power, to defend the Proteſtant Succeſſion happily ſettled in your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe, and to ſupport the Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom, and the Independency thereof, againſt every Power that now does, or hereafter ſhall, attempt the Subverſion of them.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, over a free and grateful People, is the ardent Wiſh of your Majeſty's moſt humble, dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Sheriff, Grand Jury, and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Angleſey, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Owen, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Holderneſs, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Grand Jury, and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Angleſey, deſire Leave, at this Time of common Danger, to expreſs our ſharpeſt Reſentment, and moſt hearty Abhorrence, of the intended Invaſion of this your Kingdom from France, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender and his Sons; a Pretender, who, for Half a Century, is obliged to the Pope and Papiſts for the neceſſary Support and Subſiſtence of himſelf and Family, whoſe Sons were educated under the Eye and immediate Direction of the Pope himſelf, in all the Bigottry and Superſtition of Popery, in all Prejudice and Violence againſt all Proteſtants in general; and as he and his Sons and Adherents are, by our Laws, Traitors, they muſt be moſt fiercely exaſperated againſt us of the Church of England in particular.

But we your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, are truly ſenſible of the Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's Reign; with the moſt thankful and grateful Hearts, beg Leave to aſſure and declare, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, maintain and defend your Majeſty and Government, at this and all other Times of common Danger, againſt all wicked and traiterous Attempts whatſoever, which ſhall be made againſt your Crown and Dignity; and with honeſt Zeal and Fervency we pray and wiſh, that we and our Poſterity may remain a Free Proteſtant People, governed long by your Majeſty, and by a Prince of your illuſtrious Houſe, to the moſt diſtant and lateſt Times.

The following Addreſs of the Cuſtos Rotulorum, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Cardigan, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Lisbon, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Cuſtos Rotulorum, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Cardigan, aſſembled at the Great Seſſions holden at Cardigan in and for the ſaid County.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Cuſtos Rotulorum, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Cardigan, aſſembled at the Great Seſſions holden for the ſaid County, beg Leave to lay hold of this our firſt Opportunity of approaching your ſacred Majeſty, with the Tribute of our grateful Acknowledgments for your unwearied and effectual Care in preſerving the Balance of Power in Europe, on which depend the Security of the Religion, Liberties and eſſential Intereſts of your People.

The freſh Proofs, which your Majeſty has given of your firm and ſteady Reſolution to purſue this great and glorious End, by expoſing even your own ſacred Perſon to the Danger and Fatigues of War the laſt Campaign, the Succeſs whereof muſt be attributed (under God) to your Majeſty's Conduct and Courage, and the native Bravery of your Royal Son, ſo eminently diſplayed, muſt excite your powerful Allies to a glorious Imitation, fill the Hearts of your faithful Subjects with grateful Sentiments, and your Enemies with Terror.

And whilſt your Majeſty is thus engaged on the one Hand, in ſupporting the Houſe of Auſtria and the Liberties of Europe in general, it is with the greateſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction we ſee you on the other Hand raiſe an additional Security to the Proteſtant Intereſt, by the Marriage of the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark.

Amidſt ſuch Inſtances of your Paternal Care of our Religion and Liberties, can any true Briton, without the utmoſt Indignation, ſee the grand Diſturber of the Peace of Europe project Meaſures to invade your Majeſty's Dominions, to involve your Subjects in Blood, to obtrude a popiſh Pretender, and introduce an arbitrary Power upon a People, who, under the mild and prudent Government of your Majeſty, are in the full Enjoyment of the invaluable Bleſſings of their Religion, Liberty and Property.

Permit us, Sir, to aſſure you, that it is with the utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence we ſee our moſt implacable Enemy attempt the Execution of ſuch daring Projects; and, as we are well aſſured, that the true Intereſt and Proſperity of your Kingdoms is centered in your ſacred Perſon and Government, ſo we ſhall always be ready, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to defend the one and ſupport the other.——We ſincerely wiſh, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long, eaſy and proſperous; and we ſhall always contribute, with the utmoſt of our Power, thereto.

Naples, March 24, N. S. On the 10th arrived here the Militia Regiment of the Province of Moliſe. The ſame Morning, and on the 12th, the third Battalion of the Swiſs Regiments Vritz and Iſchindi, began their March for St. Germano, as did on the 14th a Battalion of Royal Macedonia for the Confines of the Kingdom of Naples towards the Eccleſiaſtical State. The ſame Day, the 12th, the King paſſed in Review the Horſe Regiment Tarragona, and appointed Prince della Riccia Commander of all the Grenadiers of Terra di Lauro, with an Addition of 40 Crowns per Month to his uſual Appointments. His Majeſty, on Notice of the Retreat of M. de Gages's Army towards Abruzzo, immediately ordered his Troops, conſiſting of 25 Battalions and 15 Squadrons, then in March for divers Parts of the Confines, to proceed to Chieti, as the Place of Rendezvous. In Conſequence of the Determination taken by the King, and the Orders which he for that Purpoſe cauſed to be publiſhed to prepare for putting himſelf at the Head of his Army, he has fixed his Departure from this City for To-morrow, in order to proceed by Capua, Calvi, and Gaeta, to Chieti, eſcorted by a Regiment of Horſe and the Life-Guards. The Queen and the Princeſs her Daughter are to go to Gaeta. During the King's Abſence he has appointed a Regency, compoſed of three Secretaries of State as Councellors, and Don Michael Reggio, General of the Gallies, as Preſident or Viceroy. Upon this Occaſion the King has granted a Pardon to all the Engineers who were found guilty of Breach of Truſt, on Condition that they ſhall ſerve in the Troops as common Soldiers, and with Grenadiers Pay. On the 20th Inſtant, 18 Perſons of the common Rank were arreſted for Diſaffection by the Committee of the Inconfidents. The Accounts from Calabria are ſo favourable, that we hope to hear very ſoon the Country is quite free of the Sickneſs. The Letters which the Court received thence by an Expreſs on the 22d Inſtant, bring Advice, that no Perſons have died at Reggio and other Places that had been infected, for ſeveral Days together.

Bern, April 8, N. S. Letters from Chamberry of the 3d Inſtant mention, that a Body of 500 Vaudois, and three Companies of Grenadiers, were advanced as far as Modane in the Morienna, to ſupport the Inhabitants, who, ſince Don Philip's Departure, refuſe to pay the Contributions impoſed upon them, whereof M. de Sade, the Spaniſh Governor in Savoy, having got Intelligence, ſent a ſtronger Detachment againſt them, and obliged the Vaudois to retire. Above 400 Men are conſtantly employed upon the Fortifications of Montmelian, where the Spaniards have eſtabliſhed conſiderable Magazines of Ammunition and Proviſions. The ſame Letters confirm, that a Body of French Troops is arrived in the Neighbourhood of Fort Barreaux, where they are to be under the Command of the aforeſaid Spaniſh Governor.

Copenhagen, April 18, N. S. The Regiment of Norway-Men, brought over laſt Year on account of the Proſpect of a War with Sweden, was re-imbarked Yeſterday in this Port, and is to ſail homewards with the firſt fair Wind.

Berlin, April 18. Count Beſtuchef, Miniſter from the Empreſs of Ruſſia, arrived here ſome Days ago, but he has been very much out of Order, and has not yet appeared abroad.

Hague, April 24, N. S. On Wedneſday laſt, the 22d Inſtant, their High Mightineſſes the States General came to a Reſolution, Nemine Contradicente, to grant, and ſend, as ſoon as poſſible, to the Aſſiſtance of his Britannick Majeſty, the Succour of Twenty Men of War, demanded by Mr. Trevor, in his Memorial of the 14th Inſtant. The following is a Tranſlation of the Reſolution taken by their High Mightineſſes thereupon.

HAving been deliberated by Reſumption upon the Memorial of Mr. Trevor, Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of his Majeſty the King of Great Britain, preſented to their High Mightineſſes the 14th of this Month, by which, in Conſideration of the War declared by the French King againſt his ſaid Majeſty, he demands, that, purſuant to their Engagements, they would pleaſe to furniſh his Majeſty proviſionally with the other Part of the Succour ſtipulated by the Treaty of 1678, conſiſting of Twenty Men of War, the Whole of which is more fully ſet forth in the Acts of the 14th of this Month. It hath been thought fit, and reſolved, to give the following Anſwer to Mr. Trevor upon his ſaid Memorial, That their High Mightineſſes, as to what regards the fulfilling of their Engagements, do abide by the Anſwer which they gave him the 2d of the laſt Month: That in Conſequence thereof, they will ſend Twenty Men of War to the Aſſiſtance of his Majeſty: That they gave Orders ſome Time ſince to prepare them, and that they will give freſh Orders for their being prepared as ſoon as poſſible. And an Extract of the preſent Reſolution of their High Mightineſſes ſhall be delivered by their Agent De Byemont to the ſaid Mr. Trevor.
